

AD 100.

Oldest known wall painting of Maya mythology (The Corn god and supplicants).

Site was likely abandoned
about 400 A.D.

Had been looted

Discovered June 2001 @ San Bartolo
Guatemala Natl Iseo Apr 2002

The art has been dated to 100 A.D.

4 ft long found in a small room attached to a pyramid. Found by William Saturno (Archaeologist) by accident.

Looters had found it & chipped off part of the mural. The maya had filled the room with rubble.

They launched a 5 yr project
to excavate the site,